COMMUNION: Communion is both a participation in Christ's true body and blood for the forgiveness of sins, and a statement of fellowship among those who participate. Members of our congregation, and members of a sister congregation of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod who have properly prepared themselves are invited to attend. If you are not an LCMS member or are of another denomination or synod, please see the Pastor before communing for the first time.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Those who serve us today: Ushers: Wilbert Stewart, Bill Stewart, Jacob LeClerc, and Milton Euhus. Elder: Bruce Fenske. Organist: Betty Lou Phillips. Acolyte: Cailynn Stuebs.

Board of Ed: Calling all shutterbugs! The Board of Christian Ed is looking for snap shots of the church and its members throughout the year to make a calendar to support the youth going to Higher Things next summer. Please email your pictures to Nancy Heredia at nancy\_heredia@sbcglobal.net or give them to any board of education member.

Come Celebrate the Reformation: As you all know October 31st is a big holiday, because we remember it as the day when the Reformation began with the nailing of the 95 theses to the door of the Wittenberg Church. I have often thought our countrymen very generous to dress in costumes and knock on doors on that day to help us celebrate. We are blessed that this year October 31st will be a Sunday. We will use that opportunity to celebrate using the Divine Service written by Luther and be further blessed with musical help from Robyn Mitchell on the organ, Maggie Fenske on the cello, and Meaghan Joynt on vocals. Please mark your calendar and invite guests to this special communion celebration.

Nominating Committee: A nominating committee has formed to begin planning our church leadership next year. If you are interested in helping either with a committee or the leadership next year, please contact Will Stewart, Janet Ehrlich, or Smokey Morner.

Sunday school focus: Have you ever been promised something and then doubted that the promise would ever be kept? In Sunday school today, our children will see Abram having doubts like that (Genesis 15–17). God, however, keeps His promises, as He did for Abram and as He has done for us in giving His own Son, Jesus, to be our Savior. Review the blessings God gives to you and your family by comparing your blessings to the list in the explanation to the First Article of the Apostles’ Creed. Thank God especially for keeping His promise of a Savior because, through Him, your sins are forgiven.

From the Mission Board: Don't forget your flu shot for this year! We will have a Mollen Immunization Clinic here at Calvary on Wednesday, November 10 from 9-11 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Flu and Pneumonia shots will be available. All insurances, Medicare, and cash accepted. Sponsored by the Mission Board. For more information contact Apryl Brand-Applehans.

Special presentation on CASA: We are blessed to have Terry Pray give us a presentation today prior to Bible Study. He will be talking to us about CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate), an excellent way to serve God by serving Children. You can stand up for abused children by becoming a volunteer. Become a CASA volunteer and be rewarded with some of the most powerful and fulfilling experiences you can find. CASA is the only organization that empowers everyday citizens as appointed officers of the court. Your involvement will make a direct impact on a child's life and perhaps for generations to come.
