Lent-April 13th: The Miracle of Faith (Matthew 27:54)

Seder-April 15th: The Passover Meal

Mission board: We once again have many of the children and youth of our congregation participating at the Yuma County Fair. Please come out and support them as they are judged on what is often almost a year's worth of effort. At 12:00pm Wednesday, March 30, the Mission Board is encouraging people to gather at the 4H food booth, next to the show rings, for lunch and fellowship to help support our youth.

MISSION BOARD: Thank you to those who either "Walked for Life" yesterday or donated to the New Life Pregnancy Center. Donations will still be taken in the Fellowship Hall in the Heart Healthy Corner. Make your check to the New Life Pregnancy Center.

Next Sunday we will begin the "Heart Healthy" project with Yuma Regional Medical Center. Blood pressures will be taken by Calvary nurses after our worship service-during coffee time. Do stop by and have your BP checked by RN's-hypertension is a silent killer, so you probably do not know if you BP is high or not, so have it checked started April 3.

Remember to sign up on the Heart Healthy table to attend the Seder Meal for Friday, April 15 at 6 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend. This is also for children and youth. It will be informative and educational for all Christians. This event is the most significant happening of the year for those of the Jewish faith. There will be a complete meal with lamb, wine and grape juice, matzoh bread, another meat, and typical Jewish Kosher cookies. We need to plan ahead, so please sign up.

The baby quilts made by the Quilting Group here at Calvary will be on display in the Fellowship Hall for another two weeks. They are truly works of art!! These were made with a grant from Thrivent through Bruce Fenske, Chapter Chairman. They will be presented to the New Life Pregnancy Center on April 10 before the 9 a.m. service.
