COMMUNION: Communion is both a participation in Christ's true body and blood for the forgiveness of sins, and a statement of fellowship among those who participate. Members of our congregation, and members of a sister congregation of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod who have properly prepared themselves are invited to attend. If you are not an LCMS member or are of another denomination or synod, please see the Pastor before communing for the first time.

Sunday school focus: On this last Sunday of the spring quarter of Sunday School, students study "John's Vision of Heaven." Those who believe that salvation has been accomplished by the all-availing sacrifice of Jesus' blood on the cross will bear the name of Christ, written on their forehead in Holy Baptism, and will have the right to the tree of life. Consider discussing, "How does John describe heaven? How is the promise of eternal life in heaven ours?"
