REFORMATION: Don't miss Sunday adult Bible class for the month of October we will be focusing on the topic of Martin Luther as we prepare for the upcoming 500th anniversary celebration in 2017. The series is entitled, "A Man Named Martin: The Man." Over the course of the 5 Sundays in October, the class will watch a video and have discussion each week about a monk whose grasp of justification by grace through faith in Jesus Christ was the cornerstone of the Reformation. The five sessions will focus on Martin Luther's childhood with his parents Hans and Margaret, his time spent at the university, why he became a monk, why he struggled with certain Catholic practices and teachings, why he had to go into hiding, and his role as a husband to Katherine and father to their children. This Sunday's topic is Session 3: Purgatory.

On the last Sunday of the month, October 30th, we will commemorate the Reformation and have our last Bible Class on the topic of Martin Luther. We will also have a potluck and a short video on Sunday, October 30th with food items centered on a German theme. A sign-up list will be placed on the front table in the Parish Hall for people to sign up to bring a salad, an entree, or a dessert. Water, juice, and coffee will be provided. We encourage all our members to attend this series as we learn more about who we are as Lutherans and why we treasure our Lutheran heritage. We hope to see all of you there.

Baptism today: This morning, Reagan Parker Strom, daughter of Katie & Bryon Strom will be baptized. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved....(Mk. 16:16)
