

Introit

Psalm 50:7–10; antiphon: v. 1

The Mighty One, God the LORD, speaks and sum- | mons the earth*
 from the rising of the sun to its | setting.
 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, I will testify a- | gainst you.*
 I am | God, your God.
 Not for your sacrifices do I re- | buke you;*
 your burnt offerings are continually be- | fore me.
 I will not accept a bull | from your house*
 or goats | from your folds.
 For every beast of the for- | est is mine,*
 the cattle on a | thousand hills.
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
 The Mighty One, God the LORD, speaks and sum- | mons the earth*
 from the rising of the sun to its | setting.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and most merciful God, You sent Your Son, Jesus Christ, to seek and to save the lost. Graciously open our ears and our hearts to hear His call and to follow Him by faith that we may feast with Him forever in His kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Psalm 145:3, 5b, 6b

Great is the LORD, and greatly | to be praised,*
 and his greatness is un- | searchable.
 On your wondrous works, I will | meditate,*
 and I will declare your | greatness.

Old Testament

Hosea 5:15—6:6

¹⁵I will return again to my place,
 until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face,
 and in their distress earnestly seek me.

¹⁴Come, let us return to the LORD;
 for he has torn us, that he may heal us;
 he has struck us down, and he will bind us up.

²After two days he will revive us;
 on the third day he will raise us up,
 that we may live before him.

³Let us know; let us press on to know the LORD;
 his going out is sure as the dawn;
 he will come to us as the showers,
 as the spring rains that water the earth.”

⁴What shall I do with you, O Ephraim?
 What shall I do with you, O Judah?
 Your love is like a morning cloud,

like the dew that goes early away.

⁵Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets;
I have slain them by the words of my mouth,
and my judgment goes forth as the light.

⁶For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice,
the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

Epistle

Romans 4:13–25

¹³The promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. ¹⁵For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression.

¹⁶That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, ¹⁷as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. ¹⁸In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, “So shall your offspring be.” ¹⁹He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. ²²That is why his faith was “counted to him as righteousness.” ²³But the words “it was counted to him” were not written for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, ²⁵who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 9:9–13

⁹As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he rose and followed him.

¹⁰And as Jesus reclined at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Jesus and his disciples. ¹¹And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” ¹²But when he heard it, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. ¹³Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.’ For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.”
